THE 1969 MILESTONE

SENIOR SUPPLEMENT

GOVERNOR DUMMER ACADEMY

BYFIELD MASSACHUSETTS

DEDICATION

The Governor Dummer student body is to a large degree guided by the Senior Class; the Senior Class at the Academy is to a large extent guided by Benjamin Stone. His stay here has been marked by his diversification of activities. From his efforts in arrangement of curriculum and studies to his work with the Church Choir, he has shown a continuous desire to improve the level of the Governor Dummer experience. For the Senior Class his patient aid, guidance in college placement and just plain hard work, has made him a greatly appreciated part of our class. Despite all his administrative responsibilities, somehow, he finds the time to teach Latin and Mathematics. The Class of 1969 respectfully dedicates the 1969 Milestone to Benjamin J. Stone.

We are pine trees in the storm."

SENIORS

ARISTOTLE'S FORMULA OF CHARACTERS . . .

The 1969 Senior Class has been marked by an extraordinary amount of various talents: academic, athletic, dramatic, and many others. Some boys entered the Academy with talent, while others developed some here; all left with some degree of it. For the future, we can only hope that we further develop these talents, and put them to use improving the world around us.

The Junior Class

This class . . . Our class . . . Is this a class? . . . We sometimes wonder why Ingham deserves the wrath of the Black Witch. And then asked the police for a search warrant during the raid for stolen golf clubs. Pierce was struck by the Night of the Skunk, and Julius became one of the ten most wanted. Does "carrot" mean anything to you? The Commons Cat had to leave, but had her babies anyway . . . Dateline Ingham — All pyschedilic posters and black lights have been banned because they are "too mind expanding." Dana Hall went co-ed during the Winter Wonder of Heavy Snow. Are Gorillas good? Even the long-haired species? The G.D.A. Surf Team, coached by the Big J, is a new club, but its attendance does not compare to that of the Butt Club. Skateboarding also aroused interest, except in those who stood aloof. Hawk got a "good deal" on his new system. Jack Cutler scored a goal against his own team, but that's league normality. We are happy to report that there were no injuries on the Pierce Bobsled Run. The house of J.B.O. has past the zoo and the jungle.

Hey, Bud, picnic, Halloween, and Italian nights were farces, but what about election night? We have the perfect record of a stable-stable class. Are you still "Waiting for Godot"? Let's drink to the Green Machine! Pass the phoney grape juice. . . . Morse set a world record in a rocking chair . . . Think how obscene it is, Mr. Clunie's first period class sleeps together . . . "Look I don't mind your writing 'J.B.O. is a killer' on the desk, but who scratched 'whale' there." We took the People's Choice . . . Grill patronizer of the Year Award goes to J. James . . . Pete Eshelman received back-to-back waffles . . . "Is there a 'Bone' on your roof?" . . . The "Iron Lung", a full-scale newspaper was produced with articles not directly related to the school and hopes to spread concern and responsibility . . . John Imber and Derek Toohey collected three hundred dollars for the Biafra Fund . . . The Student Alliance was formed . . . many Juniors were on the Honor Roll.

Above all, the class has a strong unity. Committees concerned with either the school or the outside received many Juniors, and this concern for others will hopefully lead to some worthwhile changes in the school itself . . . Mr. Gosse's ROTC Fascist Regime Class still does not offend Adam and John, but "Heil, Hitler" is taking it a little too far . . . Carol Imber . . . Father Bradley gives religious ceremonies after mixer . . . names: Hawk; Fatty, alias Jelly Belly; Mondo, alias the Night Train, alias the Montreal Express; Spriggs, Butts, Sleenard, Happy Jack, Jumpin' Joe, Halsy, Stein, Hump, Bone; Davy Jones, alias J.B., not O; Big Der, Derf, the Mod, and we have a Morocco Flowers. Would you trade the Hawk?

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

The class of 1971 is one of the most united, mentally, and physically able classes that this school has seen in 206 years. Although we had a lot of fun this year, the class feels that when it counted we have consistently set good examples for the freshmen class, the rest of the Governor Dummer community, and for all it's visitors. . . . "Hello Justin, this is Debbie" . . . Jeffie are you still with us? . . . Ah . . . Katzenberg . . . What is that kid's name? Curlingbone? Burningbush? Hurlingham? . . . Bull, what's on that tape? . . . Rumor has it that Mr. Evans will coach varsity baseball next spring . . . Too bad about those Red Sox, eh Artie . . . Where is Barrett? In the Infirmary? . . . "Come on Socrates, think" . . . The class had 22 athletes on varsity sports this year . . . Perkins I was turned into a putting green this year . . . Thanks to sacrifices by Brad Young and Dave Shove the swimming team tryouts began and ended early this year . . . Harold was voted the official mascot of the class this year, with Mr. James dog running a close second, and Andy Nelson's cat third . . .

"But Mr. Bond, I've been working. I just this second put my book down" . . . Alan Brewer was going to take over the administration building, but was stopped by Art Moher who was shocked at the idea of violence on our campus . . . Andy Kirkaldy is going into the pizza business . . . The sophomores almost had a monopoly on businesses on campus this year . . . Commons also had a near monopoly on class reps this year . . . "Capron, for someone on the high honor roll." . . . Day boys are finally waiting . . . JV basketball had the first undefeated basketball team in the schools history . . . Fu's Food almost burned up Farmhouse . . . Philbrick, where are you? Schoepf where aren't you?

Fender

The Freshman Class

The Fall of 1968 brought to G.D.A. a very confused, very eager, and very gullible Freshman Class. Not only did we fall for the usual tricks, such as buying season tickets to the movies, but this year the seniors got Jabo to turn a fire extinguisher upside-down as a proof of his strength.

Before long the new breed began to get along better with the upperclasses, despite Fig Bar's infamous study-hall pole. We especially showed our prowess on Halloween, when Mason ambushed the unwary sophomores.

Although the pond season was short lived, Kilo Watts was captain . . . the dreaded eighth period Bar-Beetle team . . .

For the first time in the school's history, the Freshman Class elected representatives to the Student Council. Harry Cabot raised the roof over the hockey rink and Frosh-Soph mixers in the winter and Frosh-Soph mixers in the spring . . . strange how girls always seem to be the center of attraction, eh Blitz?

All in all, it was a good year, as the students cut J.B.O.'s classes, and J.B.O. cut the student's hair; as Beetle handed out work squads left and right, and the freshmen handed out Beetle; as sports were revolting and Connolly and Baratelli revolted against sports. So, if the incoming freshmen are half the class we are, Tough Luck!

Once again this fall, the new football and soccer players were mildly appalled to see people in grey pajamas bounding over the countryside.

The cross country team this year was a young one, with only two seniors, but it had a lot of raw talent. The very youth of the team, however was a weakness. The team stuck together extremely well in races, only our runners were often out of scoring position.

Emery Boose led the team with stout resolution to be awed at, while Howie Comis followed closely with real nerve. Jim Hallas and Randy Kelly added really steady depth along with Captain Kurt Mingledorff.

What separated this team from others, however, was the spirit and all-round good humor displayed throughout the tough season. Mr. Fenn flatly declared that this year's team had the most spirit of any team he has had.

With eight seniors and seven returning lettermen, next year's cross country team, to be led by Co-captains Emery Boose and Howie Comis, ought to be one of the strongest ever.

LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

First Row; Murphy, E., Sacks, Meehan, Co-capt. Strider, Co-capt. Borneman, Lang, Bruce Young, Costello; Second Row; Coach Coupe, Sang, Clute, Coughlin, Hall, Lee, S., Bloom, Nelson, J., Handy, Terry, Coach Anderson; Third Row; Coach Evans, Timken, Briggs, Brace, Stichnoth, Kaplan, Barkin, Simpson, Thomas, Pasbrig, Gay, Coach Gosse.

The team arrives September 11 for early start . . . "No Clute, you went for the bug juice yesterday. Barkin, you get it!" . . . These G.D.A. mosquitoes! . . . Sacks and Terry demonstrate their new pattern, the V-in . . . Jesul guys, get in there and beat the by-Jesus out of 'em!" . . . Governors triumph in the St. Sibbie's dust bowl, 20–6 . . . "Yeah, we'll call him 'the Bear' " . . . A weak B and N team ekes out a 20–20 tie. Coughlin racks up two T.D.'s . . . "Officer, how do you get to Moses Brown? . . . no, no, not Brown University!" . . . The team wins 31–12 over a "rough" Mo Brown track squad. Couglin 3 T.D.'s, Strider to the big boy, for another six points. Bear hit by flying football . . . October 15, Sango loses his first field goal match to a determined Coach Gosse . . . Coughlin out . . . "Honest Coach, I didn't kiss any girls!" . . . The team wins in the rain over Milton, 19–6 . . . Oh-oh! What's Sneaky Pete up to now? A desperate wail of "Scramble!" echoes across the field . . . "Now, where's Donny Manning? Oh well, Bloom, you be Manning today . . . "Hey Rick, can we do a 6–2?" . . . Governors defeat Groton, 14–12. It was noted that not every member of the spirited Groton Squad was striped horizontally . . . Carse forgets he's a dumb lineman as he rambles and rumbles for a 22 yard punt return and T.D. Lang's golden toe provides the margin . . . Hoy Bee! . . . "Yees geentlemin, we have a single wing here — Now! Who looks like a single wing passer here?" . . . Good old Harvey couldn't make the game — Not that it would've mattered, as the team whips St. Marks 22–6. Sneaky Peter grabs two of Strider's tosses for T.D.'s, and Freddie also pulls one in. The Gargantuan boots G.D.A.'s only field goal in the school's history. Nelson invents the 5–3–1–1 pass and punt prevent formation . . . Terry and Coughlin return in time for Belmont Hill, and the Fall Dance. It looked tense for a while, until Strider puts the ball across the goal line behind Big Steve on a patented quarterback sneak. The game ends in a 6–6 tie, and the team compiles the third undefeated season in the school's history, and the first since 1953 . . . After the game, amid noise and cigar smoke, the coaches receive their fully garbed, well-deserved shower. At the awards meeting, Tiny Ed hits Sneaky Pete with the B.H. game ball, and Pete hands it off to Coach Anderson. It has been quite a year . . . Next year's team will be led by cornerback-swingback Scotty Brace, and . . . you guessed it . . . Al . . . Ben . . . Duff, the people's choice, Gay.

The Spoilers

They started and ended the season with high hopes. After dropping the first two league games, they eliminated Taber, Brooks, and Belmont Hill while finishing with a 2–4–2 record and forming a tighter race. The team played well against Exeter and Andover and was rarely outclassed by the top four teams in the league, but they did not get the breaks against the lower teams. Tim Tenney, the high scorer of the team, scored all goals against Tabor; and Sam Johnson, with two assists for important goals, proved themselves worthy of their co-captaincy. Nat Follansbee, with two goals, delivered the team's first victory against Milton. Paul Wright, tied for second high scorer, got the winning goal to beat potential league champions Tabor. The defense, although not fully recognized, was stabilized by Jeff Gordon, who recovered from a hip injury, and Victor Bond. The team grew from the first practice and culminated their spirit in the tie against Belmont Bill.

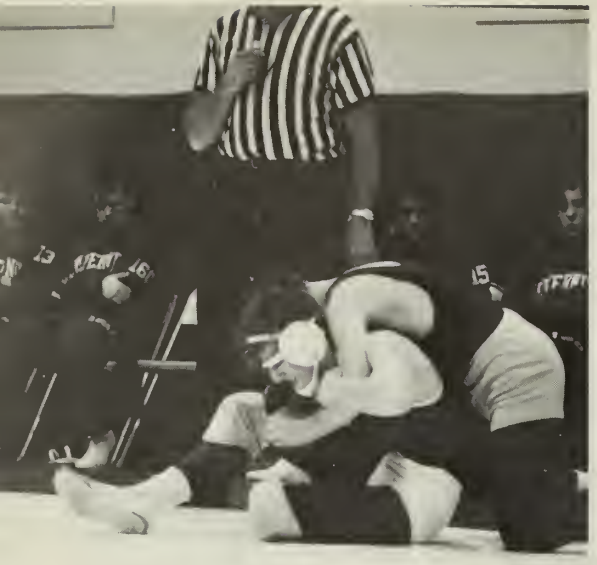
WRESTLING



The 1969 Wrestling Team

Where did all the seniors go this year? It seemed as though everyone was a junior (six in all plus one sophomore). Mike Mulligan's facial expressions, which made him look so lost and helpless, earned him the title of the team puppy dog. We walked with God for another year, but Chris kept interupting our train of thought by throwing his headgear at us . . . funny thing, it worked. Brillo's switch-grunt-and-grimace worked well in the tournament . . . almost as well as Barkley's run-around-behind . . . No, Jon, you can't wear your warm-up in the picture. Don't worry, no one will notice . . . In the far corner, wearing light colored trunks and weighing a mighty 133 pounds, we have Potent Pete, also known as the neck-cracker. Oh, you big bully! By the end of the season Tobey mastered the Granby almost as well as he mastered the art of typing, which he managed to do four times. Twig had one of the two undefeated dual meet seasons, and no one need ask who had the other one. What's more, Twig was the first leg-man in the upper weights in years, although F. B. claims that he was. Barkley's prime move from the bottom was called grab-the-wrist-and-throw-your-feet-up-in-the-air . . . Hey, Butch, how much are you under this week? What, only fifteen . . . Woofa and his whatsy-roll followed up with a headlock gave Mr. Evans grey hair in the Belmont Hill meet until he finally pinned his man. Fig Bar only picked on Foo and Mr. Evans, and racked in with the Outstanding Stalling Award, while Dar Bar was awarded the Loyal Spectator Award. Carson is still taking moves from channel 9, but listened to Mr. Evans long enough to take a second in the tournament. The team's showboat, "Big Ben" had the quickest pin, only 0:37. "Coach Lattime was the only "wrestler" (ha ha) to receive a gold pin. Finally, out of the seven underclassmen Twig Stichnoth and Bill Tobey were elected to lead the team next year.

The Varsity Hockey team got off to a slow start at the hands of the Alumni losing 8–1. Co-captain Tim Tenney scored the only goal. The Governors then picked up two wins against Brooks and Thayer. Tenney scored a hat trick in the Thayer game. The team then lost to Nobles, 4–0, with goalie Sam Johnson making an astounding 51 saves. A crushing defeat was suffered by the Red being beaten by B&N, 10–0. Middlesex then earned a 4–1 win over the Governors. Nat Follansbee scored the single goal. The team then dropped a poor game to Groton, 4–1. Next year's captain Peter Briggs and Josh Minner each scored a goal against Lawrence, giving the Red a 2–1 win. The Varsity then whipped Berwick at the UNH rink, 7–2. Sophomore Will Phippen scored his first goal in that game assisted by Tenney and rookie Larry Young. Milton was the highlight of the season, the only goal being scored by Tenney and assisted by Follansbee in the last 58 seconds, giving the Red a 1–0 win.

After dropping a hard 1-0 loss to St. Paul's, the team traveled to Moses Brown only to be beaten, 4-2. Briggs and Follansbee scoring the goals. The varsity then faced the usual strong Belmont Hill and was beaten 10-2. Bambi Costello and Follansbee scored against the Blue team. Due to an excessive amount of snow, the team was forced to miss a week of practice and play St. Mark's away. Because of the lack of practice, the Governors were not able to sustain their lead, falling behind in the last five minutes of the third period. Follansbee, two, and Miner each scored and Tim Tenney earned two assists.

Sam Johnson did an exceptional job this year in the nets after a year of league basketball. Conrad Miller with his aggressive style picked up eight penalties. Playmaker Mike Fish earned nine assists. The team strength was weakened by injuries to Bill Strider and Tom Leonard. Two fantastic co-captains in Tenney and Ralf O'Leary lead the team in scoring with 16 and 10 points respectively. And a pat on the back to Mr. Blair for sparking the team so well in his first year.

The 1968–69 basketball season was not very impressive if one only looks at the record. Captain Fred Lang, being the only returning starter, could not carry all of the weight since the team suffered from a lack of depth and experience. During the last half of the season, we were challenged by the toughest opponents and Fred's injury, which occurred during the Sunday night practice after Winter Weekend slowed down the team considerably for the last four and toughest games of the season. Team effort and unity occurred sporadically during the season. The Alumni game was a great team effort, an example of good ball handling and precision, which was especially difficult against the Alumni's silent weapon: Coach Navins. The Groton game was one of the best team efforts put out all season. Fred began his high scoring earlier and by this game netted 29 points. Steve Worthen liked the game, but could not decide where to see it. There were a few easy wins at St. Sibbie's and Lawrence, but the one game which pointed out a definite lack of cohesiveness was at Belmont Hill. Fred sunk a big 42 points, but neither Doug Macdonald, "Sneaky Pete" Borneman, nor even Ace Pierce could score adequately. Therefore, a mere sixteen points by the rest of the team was not enough. A tough Rivers game brought excitement as Vic Bond pumped in 15, but an overtime duel put Rivers on top by one point. A game which was also one of the best examples of teamwork was the one at Milton. "Bad News" Borneman played a good defense and Doug's fast hustling, on and off the court, provided plenty of excitement. However, this tended to wear out Doug near the end of many games which was another factor which marred the Governors during the season. In one of the highest-scoring prep school games in recent years, GDA provided Browne and Nichols with one of their toughest contests of their season. During the last four games, when Fred was injured, Art Schultz, "Lost Lay-up" Lighton, and Scotty Brace improved with longer exposure on the court.

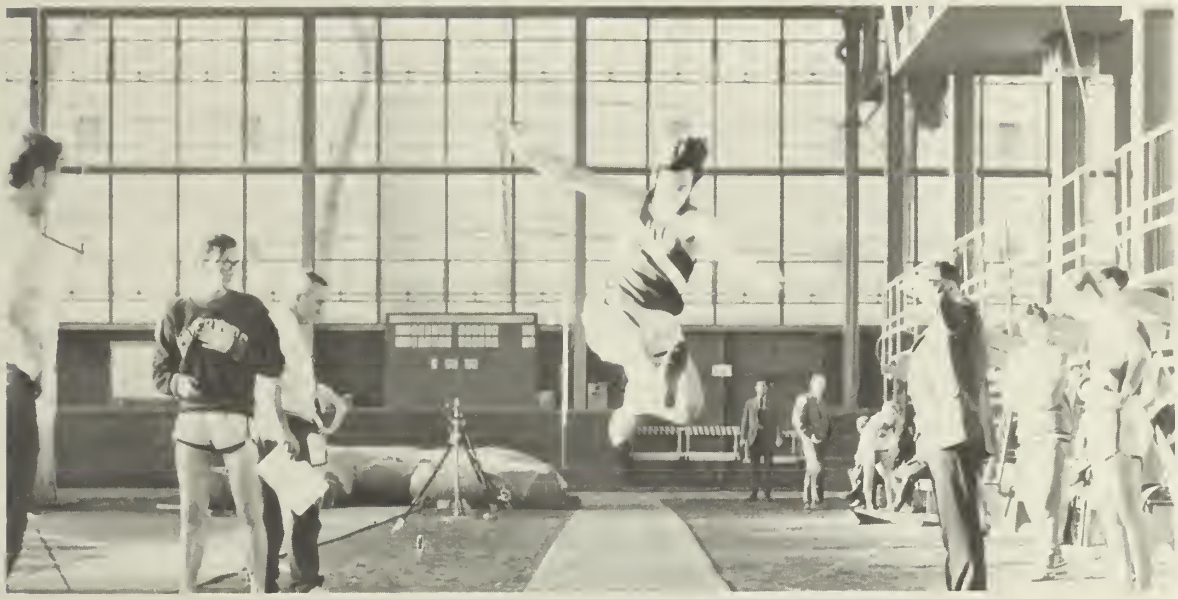
TRACK



Because of the lack of a cage the track season was marked by daily trips to Exeter. Minimal practice time didn't help us in our first two meets against Moses Brown and M.I.T. Our potential in the middle distances and in the relays finally showed up in a solid victory over Exeter and a strong second in the B.A.A. Relays. The dual meets season ended well with a big win over Tabor. At the Interscholastics certain individuals hit their peak. Co-captain Lattham, who was undefeated in dual meets, set a school record in taking a first in the 600; Lang also set a school record in taking a first place in the high-jump; Co-captain Barnes takes a third in the high-hurdles; and Coughlin huffs and puffs his way to a third in the fifty.

Lattham, what can be expected of him next year? . . . "Booby" — who else could get a bone-bruise climbing a wall . . . Dougs gets best effort award . . . R. Small Ronald? . . . Mr. James: "Exeter has the highest illegitimate birth rate in the state" . . . Butler gets medical excuse and last place award . . . Wallace: "But, Willie Davenport is a friend of mine" . . . Half the team misplaced on the way to Pingree after the Moses Brown meet . . . Goodhue, true leaguer . . . Wright elects himself club captain . . . Chase bends bar beyond repair . . . SPRING

We were not a heavy team except for dieting Edmond and show-boat Al; but we sure could finesse the opposition all over the field. In the rain anything seemed possible, as Edmond got an assist and R. Toot, a goal. Despite his Indian dance, Nate left a shot against Exeter on the goal line . . . the mud put up a good stand. Chris and R. Toot put on a fine exhibition, shutting out St. Mark's. The Harvard Freshmen came and left with a new coach and our undefeated string. R. Toot, who really seems to be dumb, forgot his shirt at Lawrence, but Ed picked up another assist. Both Lawrence and KUA scored first, but Sam said, "It's fun to watch them run around, hugging each other, and then step on them." Sam finally scored against KUA. Andover was the best in New England, but only after they beat us. The come-from-behind tie against St. Paul's . . . Ralf dodged the whole team as usual. He now holds the school record for goals in a carrer with 76.

George came home where he knew he belonged. Bambi pulled a muscle playing softball. Richie Hebner Tenney kept scoring . . . Edmond only needed about 53 points to catch him. "It's my body" Coughlin tripped over his own feet trying to put a Bambi move on Carson. Eshelman and Chase became co-captains of next year's squad. TENNIS

Early practices in Salem . . . Early start at Nobles, oh well . . . Mackowsky leads team to victory and upset over Middlesex, while the rest of the team chips in, yah, yah yah . . . Groton another tough one with Billy Frost salvaging only win . . . After a moral loss (a tie) at Browne and Nichols team went into tailspin with Goober and Beatle only ones to win at all . . . Short loop, doubles practice, a few good parties and we were ready to bounce back . . . M.I.T. Brooks and Milton crushed a strong Belmont Hill team tied . . . Goodhue had as many double's partners as parties and still stayed in training. Mackowsky and Bayley showing the utmost in cooperation and understanding managed to survive each other for the season. Frost always managed to keep Lighton in place, someone had to, while Dave Lampert used the tennis matches merely as a way to get in touch with some friends. We all finally got the 'idea that Ruuus was sorry. These four underclassmen though should really be the nucleus of a strong team in the next couple of years and with some improvement in doubles (What else is new) they could go all the way.

GOLF

Who's Fatherland? And why do we have to go to his farm. It's g-g-good! Woods Hole provided a premonition for the forth coming season. A tie with Haverhill was followed by a long-awaited victory over the Harvard Frosh. Topped Exeter, but lagged behind a strong Andover team in the annual tri-meet. A lot of young blood contributed to the team's success with fellas like Sugar Bear's Cub, Pete Alfond (Captain for next year), Sam Tamposi, Dave Przestrzelski, little Scotty Walker, and Teddy Northrup. The additions by the seniors included such stalwarts as Captain Andy Tarlow who overcame the "Bart-jinx" toward the end of the season. A fine showing by our journalist-golfer Mike Shay with his educated shank. Maine's answer to low-ball hitting Lee Trevino playing out of Houlton's Municipal Pitch and Putt Course was Acer. What can you say about Artie Schultz? Well, his self-control was on a par with whining Bailey Howell. No doubt about Ace's MVP.

The team was made up of a bunch of characters, but on behalf of them and all former GDA golfers a special hand goes out to retiring Coach John Witherspoon. His diplomacy and congeniality were most helpful in relations with Ould Newbury and coaches of other schools. It is fitting that our 4-1-1 season is the best on record and hope for similar success is extended to succeeding Head Coach Thomas Bond.

Baseball, 1969 — the season that could have been. Even so, it was a season that was. It was a season of improvement with five wins and eight losses. But baseball isn't made by the records and statistics alone. Each member of a baseball team is a special character, like a Babe Ruth or a Ty Cobb. The Varsity Baseball team of 1969 was a team of characters. Never to be forgotten at second base was the Aardvark, or Lippy, whichever is more familiar. He was so determined to follow in Ty Cobb's footsteps that he went to the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown and 'stole Cobb's original glove — it has only three fingers and is held together by a role of electrical tape. No one is quite sure if he used the tape for his great bludgeon of a bat or for his gruesome hockey stick. The nurse — or Manson Smith, third baseman ace deluxe, had confrontation problems one day and was sitting on the bench when someone ran up to him and asked him if he could use his socks for a tourniquet. He refused because they were holding up his pants. The Red Eye — or the nose, whichever is preferred (Jeff is of course the best, or is the best, of course, Jeff?) caught a ball in the eye one day and was so confused that he ran to third base on a single. The umpire was so confused that he ran to first base to try to find him. Those umpires — Mike Miller caught poison ivy trying to slide on a hit. He forgot he was on the golf course, though, and slid into the rough after a chip shot. 10.80 decided what his problem was after about six games of hitful ball — he had been pitching from second base and because he was the Great Grumbling Greek, no one had enough guts to tell him what was wrong. The two coaches, Slim and Hair, were so nervous before one game that one of the players found Hair bench-pressing Slim while Slim was saying a prayer, probably Casey at the Bat. Mutchler, the streak, displayed his courageous batsmanship during one game by hitting three huge flies — then he got eight mosquitoes, and finally got up to bat, only to fan on three pitches. Someday, Steve Worth will learn that Governor Dummer can afford more than one baseball. It had better because 433 baseballs were lost this year, thanks to our rookie manager.

How can baseball be any more colorful than this team has proven to be. It was fun and to everyone credit is due — especially to Gunther, eh, eh, eh.

The field and track record 3 wins, 4 losses, and a 2nd place in the interscholastics was disappointing to a team having several outstanding individuals and a consistent effort by all. Perhaps, the team's continual improvement was a better measure of its success.

HUMANITIES

The 1969 school year was filled with numerous new cultural opportunities. Mr. Baratelli was responsible for the success of this program along with several masters, who gave up nights at home to accompany us into Boston or elsewhere. Thursday afternoons and evenings were set aside for such excursions. Operas, plays, museums, conferences, symphonies, and other interesting and enjoyable events were attended. Guest speakers came to inform us on current events in the country's history. The program also included social projects under the direction of Mr. Peter Mercer. These projects helped their participants to understand, sympathize, and attempt to aid others whose lives are not as comfortable. The small community of Governor Dummer more or less broke from a traditional isolated one to a much more involved one. The students benefited immensely and hope that this program will continue.

The Morse Flag

THE MORSE FLAG

The Morse Flag has been awarded each year to the senior whose record in all respects has met with the highest approval of the faculty.

In four years here this boy has been a wholehearted and conscientious participant in many areas of endeavor. An honor student, member of Cum Laude, editor of the yearbook, and three-sport varsity athlete, he has also found time to serve as a study-hall proctor and co-chairman of the senior Grill Committee. Few young men in my experience have so fully realized their potential, both in meeting personal goals and in contributing to the community. I shall be happy to place our future in hands such as these.

On behalf of the faculty, it is my pleasure and privilege to present the Morse Flag to Nat Follansbee.

The Academy Prize

Academy Prize

The Academy Prize is awarded to that senior who by his unselfishness and sportsmanship has best exemplified the spirit of the school.

As I have said on many occasions, the role of leadership and responsibility is a difficult and lonely role, particularly for a young person at a time in his life when popularity and a carefree life seem so important. During this year, I have worked very closely with a young man who has met the challenge of this role to the full.

If I have learned anything over the years, I have come to realize that maturity, common sense, conviction, courage, and even wisdom are not necessarily related to age. The president of this senior class has reaffirmed that conviction. By personal example, by tireless effort, by courageously expressing his own convictions, by offering a helping hand to so many, he has served his peers and the school so wisely and so well.

On behalf of the faculty, it is my privilege to present the Academy Prize to David Winthrop Forbes of Ipswich

Ambrose Prize Speaking Awards

Increasingly ours is a world of oral communication. People in all fields of endeavor find themselves on their feet presenting ideas that often in the past appeared in written form. This being true, the experience our seniors gain in Mr. Sager's course in Speech becomes ever more important.

Last night at the Commencement Dinner three members of his classes demonstrated the value of the course through their fine performances. This morning I am very pleased to present the Ambrose Prize Speaking Awards to them:

First: David Winthrop Forbes of Ipswich

Second: Victor Max Bond of Henderson, North Carolina

Third: Paul Dominic Gilbert Smith of Essex, England

Ambrose Prize Speaking Awards

Goodwin Athletic Prize

The winner this year is indeed a young man of stature, all 6′9″ of him. However, the respect in which he is held, both here and on other campuses, springs not from his imposing stature but from his impressive performances in three sports. His sure hands and great reach made him a constant threat as a starting end in football. Not only was he captain of the basketball team and Most Valuable Player in that sport, but he also broke the long-standing school record for points scored in a single game. As co-captain of the track team, he led the way in scoring, broke two school records, and failed to win only one event in which he was entered during the season.

A gentleman, sportsman, competitor — he has brought great honor to his teams and to the Academy.

Frederick Noyes Lang of Salt Lake City, Utah

SPECIAL PRIZES

Special Prizes

1. . . . A young man who has served his school so well in an incredible number of capacities. Outstanding manager of many teams, strong contributor to the Press Club, administrator of dining-room attendance, movie projectionist, assistant athletic trainer, even phone operator on occasion — he has been that nearly indispensable person . . .

Edmund Charles Lattime of Newburyport

2. A student whose accomplishments are not dramatic but who has demonstrated great conscientiousness, enthusiasm, and dedication in all aspects of their lives here. As a student, a three-sport varsity athlete, an actor, a member of the Grill and Development Committees, this lad has given of his very best . . .

Peter Charles Clute of Hingham

3. These days we all wonder whether enthusiasm for any existing organization or institutions has really gone out of style. The winner of this prize proves that is has not. His devotion to the school and to his three varsity teams has been an example and a source of strength for all. Furthermore, his willingness to take a positive position and speak with conviction has raised the goals of many in this community. In the future, I am confident he will have a similar impact on those around him.

Carson Nicholas Meehan of Byfield

4. . . . A quiet and effective leader in a number of areas. This year he has served as a dormitory proctor, chairman of the Dining Hall Committee, president of the Chapel Choir, and co-captain of winter track, while still earning a solid position on the academic Honor Roll.

Although never one to seize the spotlight, he has had a deep influence on the life of the school.

Swift Churchill Barnes, III of Newburyport

5. . . . Great accomplishment in any field requires some ability, but more than that it is the result of determination, courage, and a dedication that carries one beyond usual performance. The winner of this prize has demonstrated these qualities both in the classroom and on the athletic field. As co-captain of three varsity sports, he has provided outstanding leadership — in part by the example of his unflagging drive to push himself beyond normal limits and in part by his willingness to assist his team mates . . .

Charles Thomas Tenney, Jr. of Newburgh, New York

6. Four years ago a young man came to us from North Carolina and immediately impressed one and all with his maturity, his poise, and the clarity of his mind. Since that time, he has earned membership in Cum Laude, has won a National Merit Achievement Scholarship, has excelled in three varsity teams, and has served effectively as secretary of the senior class. In addition, he has given deep thought to the problems of his race and able leadership to his fellow blacks at school . . .

Victor Max Bond of Henderson, North Carolina

7. . . . A senior who has been the personification of loyalty and consideration for others. A leader in athletics as co-captain of hockey, and all-time leader in career goals scored in lacrosse, he also has been a strong force within the student body in his role as vice president of the senior class. I wonder how many of his peers he has guided and helped over rough spots, how many problems he has prevented or solved. He has made Governor Dummer a better place in which to live . . .

John Anthony O'Leary of Framingham

Gaffney Prize

"A delightful sense of humor, a genuine concern for others, a desire to carry more than his share of the load, a high set of personal standards – these are the characteristics for which we honor this young man tonight. He has been an honor student, a two-sport varsity athlete, chairman of the Library Committee, and co-managing editor of the yearbook."

Jeffrey Louis Gordon of New York City

"To a boy who has shown perseverance, hard work, and good spirit in his school life . . .

If one were to look only at the superficial measures of his ability, one might not predict outstanding accomplishment for this young man. Yet he has been elected to the Cum Laude Society, he has won a place on two varsity teams, he has made strong contributions as a dorm proctor, co-managing editor of the yearbook, library proctor, and leader of the Red Key.

Surely this year's winner has shown very great perseverance and good spirit throughout his years here."

Johnston Porter Connelly, II of Suffield, Connecticut

Barriskill Prize

"to that member of the senior class who has made an outstanding contribution in the field of music at the Academy.

The winner could well be described as our renaissance man. He has been an outstanding actor and director in dramatics, a curator of the archives, and manager of two varsity teams. In the field of music, he has performed admirably in the band, the jazz group, the Glee Club, and the Choir. Fine musician that he is, he well deserves the Barriskill Prize."

Steven Prentice Worthen of East Lynn

INGHAM FUND SCHOLARSHIP	Ingham Fund Scholarship "An industrious and able boy . . . A year ago this young man was struggling without great success to meet his academic goals. His industry and perseverance have recently brought him to a place on the Honor Roll" Robert Whitfield Aigler of Duxbury	ROBERT WHITFIELD AIGLER

Awarded each year to the ranking scholar in the senior class.

At the end of last year, the winner made a belated decision to undertake an engineering course in college. This necessitated his taking a very stiff senior program, including two lab sciences and Math 4A. Mr. Stone and I seriously questioned whether he could carry the load. However, he has been able to achieve membership in the Cum Laude Society, a letter of commendation from the National Merit Scholarship program, and the Number One position in his class.
